

Other Assistance Available for Crime Victims

Victims of crime may also receive assistance such as emergency shelter, crisis intervention, emotional support, and criminal justice information by contacting a Victim/Witness or Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Center in your area or by contacting the Nebraska Victim Advocacy Program.

Contact your local law enforcement agency or county attorney for more information.

CVR Staff can provide a list of statewide contacts.

What is the Crime Victim's Reparations (CVR) program?

The CVR program is a program which became effective in 1979 in the State of Nebraska to help victims of crimes who have been injured or have suffered a financial loss because of the crime.

Compensable Expenses

A maximum of $25,000 per person per claim

Medical and mental health expenses directly related to the incident

Funeral and/or burial expenses for eligible homicide ($10,000 max)

Lost wages for the victim while in a doctor's care

Loss of support of the victim for an eligible dependent(s)

Counseling expenses for the victim and witnesses of the incident ($5,000 max)

Please call the program with questions or visit our website for a comprehensive list of expenses.
